Election Special

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE GATHERING OF INFORMATION

* * * * *

The forthcoming council elections offer a unique opportunity to identify and monitor Searchlight friendly extremists. The Socialist Workers Party, who have worked closely with Searchlight on several projects including the joint production of booklets etc are standing over 100 candidates under the name Socialist Alliance. Another Searchlight ally, Red Action, are standing candidates under the name of the Independent Working Class Association.

The names and addresses of candidates and their election agents MUST be published and can normally be viewed on notice boards outside your local Town Hall. On polling day the details will be published outside the relevant polling stations.

Please take the trouble to note these details and send them to us at ...

CHARITY COMMISSIONERS ORDER
CLOSURE OF SEARCHLIGHT'S
"Educational" WEBSITE

* * * * *

Britain's Charity Commission has ordered the website of the Searchlight Educational Trust to close down until certain changes are made both to the site and their organizational structure.

Following complaints laid before the Charity Commissioners in London by New TARGET that the Searchlight Educational Trust, a registered charity, was in contravention of section 8 of the Charities Act 1993 the Charity Commissioners ordered an immediate investigation.
